Tarantella roots

Music, dance & lifestyle
from South Italy

Raised into a musical tradition inherited from the people of their own villages, Francesco et Giovanni Semeraro, natives of the Puglia region and the calabrian Francesco Rosa, are melting their stories and instruments in the popular districts of Paris since 2008. Tarantella roots, their latest album, presents a musical trio with spontaneity and freshness, mixing the variety of instruments, the power of voices, the sensuality of dance and irresistible rhythms. Their show takes you to the heart of the popular South Italian lifestyle and culture, offering live music and folk dance.

The show also exists as a performance in motion with a fourth musician : The hairy band is an acoustic quartet with traditional costumes and instruments which immediately calls the passion and trance from South Italy popular festivals.

TELAMURE has played in prestigious concert rooms in Paris as Le Cabaret Sauvage, Le studio de l'Ermitage, La Bellevilloise, le 104 and important events like Festival d'Ile de France (Arcueil), Festival des villes et musiques du monde (St-Denis), Traversées de Tatihou (St-Vaast-la-hougue), Artpole Festival (Ukraine), Antitapas (Belgium), Ballati (Italy), Radicazioni (Italy)...

With :

Francesco Rosa : chitarra battente, zampogna, percussions, singer

Giovanni Semeraro : double flutes, clarinette, percussions, singer

Francesco Semeraro : diatonic accordeon, castagnola, percussions, singer
